HO! FOR A CONVENTION.

As it becomes necessary to noid a District pany owes a debt of incalculating gratitude, for the Convention for the purpose of nominating a solicitude now zealously manifested by many of the with him two of his sons, [cf whom one, Robert Dale owen, is now member of Congress from Indiana) and Congress, we would respectfully recommend the holding of conventions in the several the holding of conventions in the several counties for the purpose of appointing dele- ity. He first "set the ball in motion," and though it gates to meet in District Convention,

At Indianapolis, on Saturday, May 10th.

We hope that the Democracy of every county in the District will sanction the proposition, and immediately appoint strong and efficient delegations to represent their wishes in the Convention.

MARION COUNTY.

be nominated.

By order of the County Committee,

Old Wayne Moving!

The Democrats of Wayne Township, are requested to meet at William C. Martindale's (Friday) April 18th, at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of appointing delegates to the county convention.

To Candidates.

we cannot believe. Yet every such request, if unac- not already acquainted with the facts stated therein. companied by the usual fee, is just so much money out of our pocket. Without any further words, then, the non-appearance of the names as desired, is accounted for.

Appointments.

Hon. Wm. J. Brown and Wm. H. English, Esq., riless, and no means, except heavenly charity, to protect themselves or their starving children. Those who had been enabled to give them employment and the detect to the detect the bull the bull the first had become ungovern-libration of both the laws of vitality, the first had become ungovern-libration of Dotr. It is not probable, however, that often the first had become ungovern-libration of Dotr. It is not probable, however, that often the first had become ungovern-libration of Dotr. It is not probable, however, that often the first had become ungovern-libration of Dotr. It is not probable, however, that often the first had become ungovern-libration of Dotr. It is not probable, however, that often the first had become ungovern-libration of Dotr. It is not probable, however, that often the first had become ungovern-libration of Dotr. It is not probable, however, that often the first had become ungovern-libration of Dotr. It is not probable, however, that often the first had been enabled to give them the first had all. Let us now show charity—the charity often preached but seldom practised. No call can be stronger. We may all, before we are aware, need the charities of others. But while we are aware, need ities of others. But while we are preserved by Divine Providence, let us set a good example. We can leight of a hundred or a hundred and fifty feet; and not the demoirtion of the Jourlevel in preserved by Dileight of a hundred or a hundred or a hundred and fifty feet; and not tickets:

There is retivising going by the board in its strong.

There is retivising going by the board in its strong.

There is retivising going by the board in its strong.

There is retivising going by the board in its strong. give in proportion to our means. Any thing must be later, Mr. Owen set up for himself, on a moderate scale; acceptable under the trying circumstances. The following is from the Bost the probable truth of which we should like to have its

We propose a public meeting on Saturday next at 2 o'clock, to take the matter into consideration, and hope to see all of our citizens present.

the first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to the details of a first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, are as homorous as they are true to first page, and they don't ask page, and t tion, how seldom does it ever dream of the agonies well; I am making that in my own business, and I can't on an otherwise healthy body! The story has been which often prey upon those from whose minds necessity alone elicited them. The story of Blanchard is sity alone elicited them. The story of Blanchard is sity alone elicited them. The story of Blanchard is sity alone elicited them. The story of Blanchard is sity alone elicited them. The story of Blanchard is sity alone elicited them. The story of Blanchard is sity alone elicited them. The story of Blanchard is sity alone elicited them. The story of Blanchard is sity alone elicited them. The story of Blanchard is sity alone elicited them agonies well; I am making that in my own business, and I can't on an otherwise healthy body! The story has been somewhat doubted, but a celebrated surgeon, Dries tionary glory that once gilded her name in the 3rd by 9 votes.

Connecticut which often prey upon those from whose minds necessity alone elicited them. The story of Blanchard is give you three hundred," said he; "come to me to-morwere again going to be attacked, and her reason shortly afterwards gave way. The husband struggled Mr. Owen remained; but at the end of the term, findon with a sad heart, writing lively essays (for that ing an intended son-in-law of Mr. D.'s, jealous of his fawas his forte) for the different leading periodicals. vor and influence, he released his employer from his pro-Then his wife died, and so prostrated was Mr. Blanch-mise; and, in connection with the Borrodailes of Lonard's nervous system by the event, that he became don, and the Battons of Manchester, built the original sight, he started back with a scream of fright and words of no ordinary men. The fate of Gov. Dorr subject to fits, and had to be watched. One evening, just after concluding his devotions, the nurse left him, when he suddenly, in a phrenzy fit, put a period to his when he suddenly, in a phrenzy fit, put a period to his children. Mr. David Dale of Glasgow, the since the passages of the nose and throat without a coverexistence in the presence of his children. Mr. Bard Date of Glasgow, the since existence in the presence of his children. Mr. Blanchard was greatly respected by the leading literative characters in London, most of whom followed him to his grave. It is consolatory, too, to add, that a segment, to twenty-five hundred. The sole article protection, entirely deprived of from the people, and based in this respect on the great and Macready, have, to their honor, guarantied £300 a day; the thread in each pound averaging twelve miles teeth.

a year, for three years, to his four children. Doubtless they will be further cared for, until able to take one of themselves.

Oubt
one of themselves.

Outer children. Doubt
one of themselves.

Outer children. Doubt
one of themselves.

TRY AGAIN .- This is the motto on the private seal till you can begin to work again." of his character .- Tipperance Journal.

giantess, now exhibiting at Louisville, is seven feet

The Governor of Mississippi has appointed the Hon. John Thompson, a representative in the last years of age, more than eleven hours in a day. By un-family is no friend to the one or to the other, and is no better than a foc. Indeed, a pretended friend is the worst kind of an enemy. the worst kind of an enemy.

Honest.-Within the last few years, the members |

Robert Owen, the Philanthropist. Robert Owen, the most distinguished philanthropist of modern times, is now lecturing successfully in As it becomes necessary to hold a District pally owes a debt of incalculable gratitude, for the is altogether unlikely he will live to see it reach the intended and substitution of which are more generally known, than the earlied definition in the fear love desk with a sad heart, to record the most fear longer to rank themselves with the Tory Whig Tyto him must be the unspeakable gratification, of with a sad heart, to record the most fear longer to rank themselves with the Tory Whig Tyto him must be the unspeakable gratification, of with a sad heart, to record the most fear longer to rank themselves with the Tory Whig Tyto him must be the unspeakable gratification, of with a sad heart, to record the most fear longer to rank themselves with the Tory Whig Tyto him must be the unspeakable gratification, of with a sad heart, to record the most fear longer to rank themselves with the South Whig ous results, anticipated and so fervently hoped for by dent-in order that we may escape the misapprehen-The several townships are respectfully re- sion of those who have never turned their thoughts to quested to appoint delegates to attend a the subject, or the misrepresentation of those who County Convention to be holden at Indiana- profit by the abuses which Mr. Owen seeks to reform, polis, on Saturday, April 26th, for the pur that we should observe, that in any thing we have pose of choosing delegates to the District said, we have not intended to endorse any thing more Convention, and transacting such other bus- of his doctrines or his plans, than the grand idea of iness as may be deemed necessary. It is sug- the eradication, as fast as possible, and by all just gested that there be a full attendance, as means, of the acknowledged evils of the social state. probably candidates for the Legislature will The means of happiness in the world are abundant for all mankind. Men should be enlightened as to the best mode of their attainment, and encouraged to pursue that mode. When this shall be accomplished, the iron will no longer enter into the souls of the great mass, but selfishness, fraud, and their concomitant vices, shall yield to benevolence, charity, justice, and all the virtues possible to be elicited from imperfect human nature. We may hereafter, as circumstances permit, copy We have been requested by various gentlemen to some of the addresses published recently by Mr. Owannounce their names as candidates for office, and in en, and which we have preserved for that purpose. In most cases they have added-" subject to the decison of the mean time, the following sketch of the philanthropist, from the "New World" newspaper, publish-That those gentlemen wish us to work for nothing, ed at New York, will be read with interest by those

> BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF ROBERT OWEN At this time, when in consequence of Mr. Owen's lectures, public attention is attracted to him, a brief notice of the life of that remarkable man, gathered by us from authentic sources, may interest our readers.

Robert Owen was born in Newtown, Wales, In the year 1771. He is consequently, now 74 years old. Like most distinguished individuals in our country, he was a of Indiana, to be clerks in the Treasury Department self-made man. His parents, though respectable, were of the United States. The former in the sixth Audi-tor's office, the latter in the second.

in humble circumstances; and at the age of ten, young Owen left his native village for London, alone, to push his fortune, with somewhat less than ten dollars in his The Great Fire at Pittsburgh.

In our columns of to-day will be found an account of with whom he remained three years. He then returned one of the most destructive fires on record. Many, in that day, of Flint & Palmer, on old London bridge. very many, poor people are rendered houseless, pen- There the youth was trained in a severe school; the buthe means to live, are in nearly the same situation. and served two years in a Mr. Satterfield's dry-goods-It is a case which loudly demands the sympathies of menced, with a very slender capital, the business of ma-

It was about this time that Mr. Drinkwater, proprietor of the first fine cotton factory then in Manchester, and working five hundred hands, advertised for a manager. Mr. Owen, at that time but twenty years old, presented the "Curtain Lectures" which we publish on ago," was the reply; "I am a man now; and have experience in this business." . "What experience?" "I work

"A twelvemonth ago his wife became partially in- Six months later, Mr. D. sent for his manager one committee of literary gentlemen, including Bulwer duced was cotton yarn, at the rate of five thousand lbs.

The editors of the State Sentinel must be well aware that the editor of this paper is absent; and dred thousand dollars. About the year 1795, before Mr. will be for two or three weeks to come. All they have said, however, in his absence, will be answered on his return.—Lawrenceburgh Beacon.

We of course could be "aware" of no such thing We of course could be "aware" of no such thing menting their hard fate, thus thrown out of employment and compelled to seek a precarious livelihood elsewhere.

"My children," said Mr. Dale, "you shall not leave me. the above; and we are very certain that the last sentence will prove to be quite as untrue as the first.

The above is and compelled to seek a precasious livelihood elsewhere. The above is and compelled to seek a precasious livelihood elsewhere. The grounds upon which they had a right to demand the liberation of Gov. Dorr:

"You may demand the liberation of Gov. Dorr in the spend part of it to support you till that mill is rebuilt. The scene of abandonment to grief which in despair. The scene of abandonment to grief which in despair. The scene of abandonment to grief which in despair. The scene of abandonment to grief which in despair. The scene of abandonment to grief which in despair. The scene of abandonment to grief which in despair. The scene of abandonment to grief which is ay, what he does not himself allude to, though some immediately followed, was, he declares, wholly inhas reason to believe himself the servant.

The scene of abandonment to grief which is member to her face, but he shook his head on that subject. It is due to Mr. Owen, however, to say, what he does not himself allude to, though some immediately followed, was, he declares, wholly inhas reason to believe himself the servant.

At this time, seven o'clock, the fire is not extend-of the Hon. WM. J. Brown, and is most significant A somewhat similar incident happened under Mr. Owceded the late war, most of the large manufacturers of him. Another interview, with her and some of her ers, but from the consent of the governed. In what manner is it " significant " ? We can con- Great Britain found it necessary, from the impossibility of daughter; and many for years wholly devoted himself to the New Lanark establishment; ruling its inhabitants by A TALL Woman.-Miss Browning, the Kentucky the power of uniform kindness, and improving their condition, from year to year, chiefly by the operation of well

In 1815, and for three succeeding years, Mr Owen devoted his time to carry through Parliament a bill to prevent the employment in factories of children under ten Congress, to be a Senator of the United States, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Walker, appointed Secretary of the Treasury.

The who gets up a quarrel in a party or in a family is no friend to the one or to the other, and is family is no friend to the other of the unitary of the resignation of family success the family success t of Congress have voted to themselves seem hundred in thousand dollars for the purchase of books for their private n.e.

In 1817, the held three public meetings in London, thousand dollars for the purchase of books for their private n.e.

In 1817, the held three public meetings in London, thousand dollars for the purchase of books for their private n.e.

In 1817, the held three public meetings in London, thousand dollars for the purchase of books for their private n.e.

In 1817, the held three public meetings in London, thousand states the probability that the devolute of the court, I appeal to the double of the day. At that time he had obtained, by the influence of his character as philantian improvement of the piano forte, and for which it is more than the last few months realized seated he had within the last few months realized seen hundred and ten thousand dollars, died a few things, he was just ready to live!

In 1817, the held three public meetings in London, the decounterd, especially the two controlled in action.

In 1817, the held three public meetings in London, the decounterd, especially the decounterd or private in the desounced, the Court, he dollowing from the dobting and pages?

"From this sentence of the ceutr, I appeal to the people of our State and of our country. They shall desire the probability of immediate since the beautiful and every paper of note, printed his space, in the development, especially the description of the desired on the description of the court, I appeal to the people of our State and of our country. They shall desire the probability of immediate since the probability of immediate without districts, to their final award."

The Pagintant. Streament, Streament,

ed by the mass of documents, considerably beyond their usual hour, the departure of the London mails.

But the speech made by Mr. Owen at the last of these

New York city, on his favorite topic, the ameliora-tion of the evils of the social state as at present ex-isting. It is to this good man that the world princi-ity and influence; and curtailed, without doubt, much of Space will not permit us to follow Mr. Owen through

One other incident in Mr. Owen's public career the will notice, both as showing that though his heterodoxy repelled, yet his admitted benevolence still relained for him, much respect, even from "the powers that be;" and also as characteristic of the man. In the year 1838, we believe, at any rate before Queen Victoria's marriage, Mr. Owen was publicly introduced to her by the then premier Lord Melbourne. The papers made a terrible outcry about this introduction of the "Founder of Socialization" to a fivirgin Queen " whereupon Mr. Owen camb

His habits are simple and frugal; his perseverance in itt-culcating his doctrines, "in season and out of season," such as is rarely exhibited, even by the most devoted enhusiast. He lives and moves, and has being in but one have stumbled on thoughts so useful and improving.

Tall Stories!

ment this noted professor had discovered the process land. of manufacturing an egg without the interposition of The N. Y. Herald saysany vital process; or in other words had successfully In Rhode Island the pardoning power is not effseems he not only thus made the egg, but actually a majority of either branch could be found to resist so found a resting place in the land of Washington and removed to streets for safety, were seized upon and entire new species of bird, without feathers-the subject as is given by the election of Jackson. opinion. To be sure it hardly violates the laws of the incognita timidly looked around, advanced hesi- ed efforts and open the blinded eyes of those who are tatingly, and finally uncovered her head. A man still groping there in moral and political darkness. whose profession was to look on horrible scenes, was The victors in the late struggle have been cheered not likely to be easily moved, but from what met his on and strengthened by the sympathy and cheering horror. A grimacing skeleton, with the bones of the stirred up the heart of the hero of the Hermitage, and head scarcely covered with a reddish epidermis, stood from the far off Tennessee came his solemn voice. the passages of the nose and throat without a cover- "If I understand the issue presented in the trial

In what manner is it "significant"? We can conceive that men of very dissimilar characters might without inconsistency adopt the motto. It is no more significant than is the paragraph of the Journal; and that is very insignificant. Did the Journal ever hear of the famous motto of the Garter? It applicable in this case.

| Coded the late war, most or the large mandacturers of the governed. Great Britain found it necessary, from the impossibility of obtaining cotton at any reasonable price, temporarily to obtaining cotton at any reasonable price, temporarily to distinct the most of the distress, the Gas Works were easily the impossibility of obtaining cotton at any reasonable price, temporarily to obtaining cotton at any reasonable price, temporarily to obtaining cotton at any reasonable price, temporarily to distinct the distress, the Gas Works were relatives, ended in giving his attention to see what you may demand it from the wisdom of your indebt. He was regarded by the friends of that system, better that the destroyed, and our city will be involved in darkness as soon as the lurid flames die away.

| You may demand it from the wisdom of your indebt the distress, the Gas Works were relatives, ended in giving his attention to see what you may demand it from the wisdom of your indebt. He was regarded by the friends of that system, better and out of the House, as the leader of the oposition, and as such, stigmatized as a destructive that time the work people receive that and out of the House, as the leader of the oposition, and as such, stigmatized as a destructive that time the work people receive that and out of the House, as the leader of the oposition, and as such, stigmatized as a destructive that time the work people receive that and out of the House, as the limit of the four meants; is the talisman which alone can are the work people receive that and out of the House, as the leader of the oposition, and as such, stigmatized as a destructive which the imposition of the House, as the leader of the oposition and other adornments, passes without attracting extraordinary notice in public. It is said to be one of all posterity.

find the following in a Boston paper: Cotton factory stocks of the first class are still on the rise, Merrimack being worth 38, and York 30 per Democracy and Humanity Triumphant! We announce with deep and heartfelt gratification Jackson, the Liberation candidate, supported by the him, shall, in some form and to some extent, if not entirely, be finally accomplished.

It may perhaps be necessary—it is certainly pruten good Dorr Democrats to the Senate and twenty-six will contain a clear majority in favor of the liberation > reformer compared to all sovereigns by the grace of God, set of men upon the face of the earth. The revenge, that a Parisian Journal, commenting on the proceeding, wind, the fire extended across Second street to the Wounded and missing, but we can state that Nativing adjoining, was consumed. The 3d Presbyterian fifty. He has spent, deliberately, upward of a quarter of a milhon of dollars in the deschination of these views; true feelings—their deadly hatred of popular liberty, reserving to bimself a very moderate competence only.

> The N. Y. Evening Post says of the result : It is a signal rebuke of the harsh and cruel policy great idea; and that is the reorganization-or rather the that has been pursued by the whigs. It shows that regeneration of society. And, however extravagant he their course towards Mr. Dorr, marked as it has been may be in some of his views—for all men who dwell un throughout by an unnecessary and vindictive Severity ceasingly through a long life on a single idea become extravagant—it may not be denied, that he has stirred up, from its foundations, the mind of the world; and caused ions to read and to think of human reform, and to State, who entertained political principles different look forward inquiringly, toward the future destinies of our race; who, but for such awakening, might never persecution of that much abused man, were at last compelled to abandon their former associates, in order to rescue the State from the heavy burden of odium that was gathering about it from all parts of the na-The Journal of last week contained a wonderful tion. In taking this step they have exposed themstory, purporting to be an account of an astounding selves to the abuse of their old friends, but will no discovery, by a certain professor Geifling, of Bruen- doubt find a recompense for this in an increased selfburgh, (if any body knows knows where such a place respect and the warm-hearted response of all who deis this side of the Moon.) According to the state-substituted the galvanic fluid for the laws of vitality, trusted to the Governor alone, so that the action of have handsome majorities over both Whigs and Na- from the river to Diamond alley components of which he probably forgot to put into This election has taken the whigs in Rhode Island

The following is from the Boston Times :

GLORIOUS TRIUMPH IN RHODE ISLAND. nature as the egg story does most grossly; but it is Island have at length been crowned with success. a protty tough Munchausenism, in our opinion, for all That party, composed of high minded men, capable of to announce the election of John Keyes Paige to the rising superior to the tyranny of local party distinc- Mayoralty of this city, at the election yesterday.

The progress of liberal principles in that State, will On a certain evening three persons called on this henceforward, we believe, be rapid and brilliant. The sane, but recovered. About two months ago, while sitting together, she exclaimed that she felt as if she were again going to be attacked, and her reason with after; and then you shall be a partner with me if it suit back-ground. On the retirement of the other two, will encourage the patriots of Rhode Island to renew-a serpent half protruded from a corpse. The eyelids ted no offence except that of endeavoring to supersede have no returns from the fourth district. mained but a small portion, entirely deprived of from the people, and based in this respect on the great teeth. Such was the portrait of a lady of eighteen, daugh- American States. Granting even that he erred as to ter of one of the most brilliant and wealthy families the means adopted, either in reference to time or form, of Europe, who had been to this degree a victim to it is difficult to conceive how the severe punishment April 4th. visited upon him can be justified."

thout a veil, and by the aid of flowers in her hair reversed by the British parliament, and the reversal ish dollars, which are in fact hardly obtainable at any rate of premium.

There is now a golden harvest for the cotton manufacturing interest, while some other branches of do
The mode of punishment quite recently introduced in the construction of a State highway near Defiance, intended that Mr.

The mode of punishment quite recently introduced into the Connecticut State Prison, viz: hanging by the heads have and dashing cold water near the crimmanty of the victim?

Shocking!—The Hartford Times says:

"The mode of punishment quite recently introduced into the Connecticut State Prison, viz: hanging by of a State highway near Defiance, intended that Mr.

Great Democratic Trumph in the City of New York!

nal victory over both Whigs and Nativists. William ing.) states that the news had been received at Cin-F. Havemeyer is elected Mayor by a majority of over cinnati, by stage, of a great fire at Pittsburgh. Twen-6000 votes. The " Native" candidate received about ty squares, including the Monongahela house, and the thrice as many votes as the Whig candidate dld; Bridge, are said to have been destroyed. This proves that a great number of the Whigs voted zette of April 11th.

The Evening Post of the 9th says:

"In the Common Council too, the Democrats have a calamity so extensive and involving such fearful made nearly a clean sweep. Out of 17 Wards they ruins. What general particulars we can give we lay have carried 15. In the 3d and 15th the Whig candidates are elected. This is all that has been saved out

The Plebeian justly exults as follows:

"This is one of the grandest triumphs which the Democracy has ever achieved! It is a second Declagale, blowing from the west. ration of Independence. It is a victory of American outery about this introduction of the "Founder of Socialism" to a "virgin Queen;" whereupon Mr. Owen came out with one of his manifestoes, taking such an independent stand, and such high ground for his mission as a ly hostile to the principles of popular freedom as any

ly hostile to the principles of popular freedom as any later of Hidependence. It is a victory of Hinderent freedom of Hidependence. It is a victory of Hinderent freedom of Hidependence. It is a victory of Hinderent freedom of Hidependence. It is a victory of Hinderent freedom of Hidependence. It is a victory of Hinderent freedom of Hidependence. It is a victory of Hinderent freedom of Hidependence. It is a victory of Hinderent freedom of Hind wounded and missing, but we can state that Nativing adjoining, was consumed. The 3d Presbyterian ism is swept from the field. It can never again rear church was on fire, but was saved with great exerof doubt, whether Robert Owen was introduced to Queen Victoria or Queen Victoria or Queen Victoria to Robert Owen."

Will be ample: for the Whig leaders who have gloatism is swept from the field. It can never again rear chur its head in the city of New York. Its one included the chur tion. promised three score and ten, is still hale, healthy, and never escape while they live, from the stigma, with obsolete, and its whole professions are at even a The fire, also, about the same time, extended across as active and unwearied in his efforts to engraft on the human mind his peculiar views, as he could have been at fifty. He has spent, deliberately, unward of a giverer of psalms and publish novels—his grand army dispersed that direction, the wind being favorable. upon the Democracy making its appearance. They But it was east of Ferry street where the fire raged heard the cry of "sauve qui peut" and they abandon- with most fury. It immediately extended towards Nativists never had any strength as Nativists. They ing, the warehouse of the Cotton Factory. In the were elevated by the disaffected of both parties, but square bounded by Market, Ferry, Second and Third the experimental remedy proved to be a greater curse streets, every building was destroyed except the 2d than the original complaint, and as a matter of course; they have been hurled from the positions and power the American office. which they neither held with dignity; nor exercised . The square bounded by Market, Ferry, Front and

"All circumstances considered, we have achieved turn one man to represent their one idea; but no! the gale. The fire absolutely appeared to dance from overthrow is complete—they have left "no wretch roof to roof, and in an incredibly short space of time, and we welcome them to the field on which they have from Third to the River, were a sea of flame. a bitter lesson of experience, and no third party will for their prey: They also crossed Third street below again rear its head by their aid. We have carried the new Post Office, and went rushing up Wood street

Brooklyn Election.

In Brooklyn, too, the Democrats are victorious,- tels, is surrounded with flames, it takes fire! Still that friend Hatch can successfully return the "eccelo-lic mind. They having obstinately refused to release for Mayor, and a majority (10 out of 18) of the membian" jokes which the Journal not long since perpe- Dorr without conditions, the question of his unrestrict- bers of the Common Council. There, as in New the Canal does not stop it, the Gas Works take fire,

> Thus is nativism going by the board in its strong- one mile from where it commenced, from the want of holds. A just fate for such a miserable faction.

Albany Redeemed!

We have the gratification, says the Albany Argus, TERRIBLE TRIUMFH OF SURGERY.—The New York tions, as well as of the stern and tried democracy of This is a result which under all the circumstances is ger. the State, the early and unwavering friends of Gov. a proud one for the democracy of the city. Last year Paris is horror-fed just now, with the details of a Dorr, this patriotic and gallant band has achieved a the Whigs elected Mr. Humphrey by a majority of vey this scene, and look over the extent of ground

Connecticut Election: A Crumb of Comfort for the Whigs:

The returns from Connecticut, thus far, show guite comparative majority for the Whigs is about the same as at the election last fall. The Democrats might cluding most of the warehouses of our manufacturhave done better as is evident from the retuns of some ers, and our principal wholesale Grocers and Comof the towns, especially New Haven.

The vote of New Haven was as follows:

New Haven City, This must be the smallest vote ever cast by the democrats of New Haven. Last year the abolition also consumed. vote for Governor was 1990-and there was consethe passages of the nose and throat without a covering ing. In the attempt to speak, the tongue played like and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing to speak, the tongue played like and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing to speak, the tongue played like and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing to speak, the tongue played like and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing to speak, the tongue played like and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing to speak, the tongue played like and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing to speak, the tongue played like and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing to speak, the tongue played like and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing to speak, the tongue played like and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing to speak, the tongue played like and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing to speak, the tongue played like and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing to speak, the tongue played like and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing to speak, the tongue played like and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing to speak, the tongue played like and condemnation of Gov. Dorr, he can have committing to speak to spe

Robert Dale Owen.

We find the following notice of our talented fellow

INDIANA .- We had known, in a general way, that Among the public buildings destroyed, are the Pitts-The surgeon goes on to narrate that he could not, at midnight, when this interview took place, stand without almost intolerable dread before this frightful apparition, but she at last attempted to speak to him.

But if we were to quote the eminent names and public works in a manner that resulted very unspection, but we were not aware, until we read and all our Pittsburgh insurance offices. apparition, but she at last attempted to speak to him.

It was an appalling attempt at utterance. She could be considered by the conside make no articulation that he could understand, but liberty in Rhode Island, a clear and concise view of volved her interests. The truth is, that eight or nine Advocate and Protestant Unionist offices are both de-describable. She threw herself on the floor in an agonly of convulsive despair. The surgeon departed the only of convulsive despair. The surgeon departed the one of the large manufacturers of the large manufacturers of the large manufacturers of the large manufacturers of the large manufacturers of the large manufacturers o of his State, under the losses and disasters, will be high, weighs nearly three hundred pounds, and is said to be one of to be well proportioned. Prentice advises her to mark the well proportioned of the competition.

The lady's hand is now open to the being dependent upon surround in the veri 1812, Mr. Owen may demand it by the influence of generous of the Ohio and Eric canal, become the means as he to the other half is provided for by into the competition.

The lady's hand is now open to the official prentice advises her to mark the mark themes advised by a middle prentice advises the time find the suicide on of his lavor to the Ohio and Eric canal, become the means as he to the other half is provided for by into the competition.

The lady's hand is now open to the tolenday of the other half is provided for by into the competition.

The lady's hand is now open to the tolenday of the other half is provided for by into the control of the other half is now open to the other half in the suicide on the other half is provided for by into the control of the other half is provided for by into the control of the other half is provided for by into the co ciful, rebukes malice, hatred, and revenge, and teaches forgiveness to those who would be forgiven.

Nor can his liberation be refused through fear of the confederacy, than ever has a citizen of Indiana, or the confederacy of the confederacy, than ever has a citizen of Indiana, or the confederacy of the confederacy in London, and has gradually spread its example over the crivilized world.

In 1817, he held three public meetings in London, which produced a tremendous excitement consequence of the person so punished. Few men can live many ocrat! Heaven sometimes overrules the worst in close of his public and market in the Connecticut State Prison, viz: hanging by of a State highway near Defiance, intended that Mr. on appeal for him, but in a legal and constitutional the heels, heads down, and dashing cold water upon the heels, heads down, and dashing cold water upon the heels, heads down, and dashing cold water upon favor, but instead, they selected C. L. Noble, a demicrostration of the person so punished. Few men can live many ocrat! Heaven sometimes overrules the worst in close of his public and market in the connecticut State Prison, viz: hanging by of a State highway near Defiance, intended that Mr. on appeal for him, but in a legal and constitutional the heels, heads down, and dashing cold water upon favor, but instead, they selected C. L. Noble, a demicrostration of the person so punished. Few men can live many ocrat! Heaven sometimes overrules the worst in the person so punished.

Great Fire at Pittsburgh. An endorsement on the way bill of Ross's line of The Democracy of New York have achieved a sig- Cincinnati stages, (received here on Tuesday morn-though, on the other hand, the "Nativists" have not | Since the above was put in type, we have received elected a single member of the Common Council: the following particulars through the Pittsburgh Ga-

Awful Conflagration! PITTSBURGH IN RUINS!!

The Journal of Commerce, which supported the confusion reigns extreme, and it cannot be expected we shall give any thing like a particular statement of before our readers.

The fire broke out about twelve o'clock, M. to-day, in an old frame shed on the east side of Ferry street, used, we believe, for a smoke house, immediately surrounded on two sides with old frame buildings. The

The houses adjoining, on Second street, caught fire

ed their standards, and raced for the fields, for the Market street, sweeping every house on both sides of alleys, and for their underground abodes. "It has been a farce from beginning to end. The ket, Ferry, Second and Front streets, except one build-

Water streets, was saved, with but little injury. The fire crossed Market at Front street, and then a greater triumph than could have been reasonably ex- began to rage with awful fury. This was about two pected. We did suppose that the Nativists would re- o'clock, P. M. and the wind had increased to a perfect behind." The Whigs have fought manfully. They the three immense squares, composed mostly of wareresolved to reinstate themselves as a party in this city, houses, bounded by Market and Wood, and extending received many a drubbing. We prefer them much to The heat by this time was tremendous, and the not professions to oppose: The Whigs have learned at all. The flames went hissing across as if eager > destroyed. On, on, marched the raging element. A sea of flame rolls on from Wood street to Smithfield. The Monongahela House, that noblest of modern ho-food to feed its voracious maw. In the meantime, the Monongahela Bridge has taken fire, and is entirely consumed. The Pittsburgh Bank, supposed to be fire proof, extending from Third to Fourth streets, is in flames. The Mayor's Office is also on fire, and the new Post Office is in great dan-

Let any one who is acquainted with Pittsburgh sur-Smithfield, up Smithfield to Diamond Alley, down Diamond Alley to the large brick Warehouse on Wood, across Wood, extending in a diagonal direction towards the Bank, up Fourth street to the Mayor's Office, and ucross to Third street, the place of begin-

In all this vast space, the very heart of the city, inmission merchants, there is not one house standing that we know of. Ticenty squares are entirely destroyed, and several parts of squares, besides all of Pipetown, and all the buildings around Bakewell's Glass works, which were

The loss of property must be immense. We shall it was impossible to save property. The Front Street Merchants, whose immense Warehouses were full of Goods, Groceries, and Pittsburgh manufactures, removed their goods to the Wharf, which they covered over its whole extent, down to the water's edge, but citizen, Robert Dale Owen, in the New York Sun of there they caught fire, and the most of them were sions through which he served as a member of the At this time, seven o'clock, the fire is not extendhas overwhelmed Indiana in so grievous a burden of are houseless and homeless, and their goods fill the

(The following appears, as a selected paragraph,

the bill of which he recently procured the passages "Suicipe.- A female named Ephemia Stokes, com-